THE GAELIC ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Gaelic Athletic Association today is an organisation which reaches into every corner of the land and has its roots in every Irish parish. Throughout the Country, legions of voluntary workers willingly make sacrifices to promote its ideals and carry its daily burdens. Why does the Association receive this unselfish support?

Those who play its games, those who organise its activities and those who control its destinies see in the G.A.A. a means of consolidating our Irish identity. The games to them are more than games - they have a national significance - and the promotion of native pastimes becomes a part of the full national ideal, which envisages the speaking of our own language, music and dances. The primary purpose of the G.A.A. is the organisation of native pastimes and the promotion of athletic fitness as a means to create a disciplined, self-reliant, national-minded manhood. The overall result is the expression of a people's preference for native ways as opposed to imported ones.

Since she has no control over all the national territory, Ireland's claim to nationhood is impaired. It would be still more impaired if she were to lose her language, if she failed to provide a decent livelihood for her people at home, or if she were to forsake her own games and customs in favour of the games and customs of another nation. If pride in the attributes of nationhood dies, something good and distinctive in our race dies with it. Each national quality that is lost makes us so much poorer as a Nation. Today, the native games take on a new significance when it is realised that they have been a part, and still are a part, of the Nation's desire to live her own life, to govern her own affairs.

  - (b) if posted, at the expiration of 48 hours after the envelope containing the same shall have been put in the post, and
  - (c) if sent by email or facsimile transmission, at the expiration of 12 hours after receipt of the same has been automatically acknowledged to the sender thereof, and in proving such service, it shall be sufficient to prove that delivery was made or that the envelope containing the communication was properly addressed and posted as a prepaid letter, or that the email or facsimile transmission was properly addressed, despatched and acknowledged as the case may be.

- 6.5 In cases of special urgency, the Secretary, the Tribunal and (provided that permission from the Secretary has been obtained) the parties may use telephone or such other methods as are necessary in order to give notice.
- 6.6 The Tribunal may deem communications to be adequate notwithstanding a failure of compliance with this Section 6, if the same were sufficiently effective.

7. Conduct of the Proceedings

- 7.1 The Tribunal shall conduct the dispute resolution proceedings in such manner as it considers fit and may follow any arbitral procedure agreed by the parties if it is in the Tribunal's opinion reasonably practicable so to do.
- 7.2 The Tribunal or its Chairperson may hold a preliminary meeting with the parties at which the parties may be given directions as to time limits and procedures, including timetables in respect of steps to be taken.
- 7.3 If directed to do so by the Tribunal, the parties shall make written submissions to the Tribunal giving further details of their Claim and Reply.
- 7.4 In cases of special urgency, the Tribunal (or, if the Tribunal has not yet been constituted, the Secretary of The Disputes Resolution Authority) may, on the application of either party, direct that a hearing be held on a specific date and that any time limits set out in this Code be varied, as so directed.

- 7.5 Each party must submit to the Secretary within such time as the Tribunal shall direct, copies of every document on which that party will rely, unless that document has previously been submitted to the Secretary. Copies shall also be sent by that party to all other parties to the proceedings.
- 7.6 The Tribunal may proceed with the dispute resolution procedures and make its decision even if the Respondent has failed to serve a Reply. A Respondent who does not complete and serve a Reply in accordance with Section 3 may not, without the leave of the Tribunal, contest any Claim.
- 7.7 If any party deliberately or recklessly misleads the Secretary or the Tribunal as to any facts relevant to the dispute or referral, the Tribunal may dismiss their Claim or strike out their Reply and make punitive awards as to costs.

8. Interim Rulings

- 8.1 A Claimant may apply to the Tribunal for interim temporary remedies where necessary in order to preserve the status quo ante pending the Hearing. If any claim for any interim remedy is being made, then subject to Section 7.4, it must be set out on the Claim.
- 8.2 Subject to Section 8.3, such applications shall be heard on a day and at a place and time suitable to the Tribunal, with at least 3 days' notice to the Respondent(s). The Tribunal shall have the same powers as a Court of Law in legal proceedings alleging a breach of contract.
- 8.3 In cases of special urgency, the Tribunal (or, if the Tribunal has not yet been constituted, the Secretary of The Disputes Resolution Authority) may (i) shorten the time required for notice or (ii) dispense with notice, and grant such temporary interim remedy as is appropriate, if the Claimant shows that it has been impossible or impracticable to meet the notice requirements.

- 8.4 No interim remedy shall be granted in the event that the Tribunal or the Secretary of the Disputes Resolution Authority, as the case may be, finds that the Claimant has unreasonably delayed in bringing the application for temporary interim remedy.
- 8.5 If an interim order is made and at the Hearing it is subsequently found that such interim order was inappropriate, the Tribunal may affix the Claimant with liability for any loss or damage thereby incurred by the Respondent(s), unless one or more exceptional countervailing factors are found to exist by the Tribunal.
- 8.6 All parties shall comply with the interim orders of the Tribunal, in default of which the Claim or the Reply (as the case may be) may be struck out without consideration of the substantive Claim.

9. Hearings

- 9.1 The Tribunal shall fix the date, time and place of any hearings in the dispute resolution proceedings and shall give the parties as much notice as practicable of same. All such hearings shall be in private.
- 9.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the Tribunal may direct that the parties should make written submissions and that no evidence will be given orally.
- 9.3 Where the proceedings involve a matter of exceptional importance to the Association, the Tribunal in its absolute discretion may invite submissions from Central Council or any other appropriate party regarding the consequences for members and units of the Association other than those party to the dispute of any decision it might make.
In any case it shall be open to Central Council to make an oral and/or written submission to the Tribunal.

10. Witnesses

- 10.1 The parties must notify the Tribunal and other parties as soon as practicable and within any time limits set by the Tribunal of the identity of any witnesses they wish to call, and, if the Tribunal requires it, each party shall disclose the subject matter and content of the evidence on which each such witness shall be relying and how that evidence relates to the points at issue.
- 10.2 The Tribunal may question a witness at any stage, and shall supervise the questioning of a witness by the parties.

11. Decisions

- 11.1 If in the opinion of the majority of the Tribunal, one member of the Tribunal has refused or failed to comply with this Code or any applicable law relating to the making of the decision and/or award, having been given a reasonable opportunity to do so, the other members may remove him/her, and the remaining members shall proceed in his/her absence.
- 11.2 The Tribunal shall decide on any issue by majority. The final decision shall be in writing and shall be dated and signed by each member of the Tribunal, and shall be accompanied by the reasons on which it is based.
Save in exceptional circumstances to be set out in writing by the Tribunal the Party deemed by the Tribunal to have been successful in the Disputes Resolution Proceedings shall, on application, be entitled to its reasonable costs. If requested by either party, the Tribunal shall measure costs.
- 11.3 The Tribunal may direct any party to the dispute resolution proceedings to take, or abstain from taking, any steps, within the Rules of the Association and with due regard to the rights of third parties, including, but not limited to, the re-hearing of any disciplinary or other decision-making process, with or without directions as to the proper procedures to be applied.

- 11.4 In the event of a decision or procedure being quashed, and with agreement of both parties, the Tribunal may conduct a full hearing as if it were an appellate body of last resort under the Rules of the Association, with power to fully conduct the procedure which has been quashed. No decision made by the Tribunal in this context shall be susceptible to appeal or review by any body.
- 11.5 In the event that the parties in dispute agree a resolution of the dispute at any stage in the referral prior to the delivery of the decision, the Tribunal, if satisfied that such proposed resolution is within the Rules of the Association and does not occasion any breach of contract or other act whereby any third party is prejudiced, may ratify the resolution, in which case it shall have the same force as if it were a decision of the Tribunal.
- 11.6 The Chairman of the Tribunal shall arrange for the decision to be delivered to the Secretary of the Disputes Resolution Authority, and the Secretary shall notify the parties and the Director General of the Gaelic Athletic Association accordingly.

12. General Rules

- 12.1 If notwithstanding the fact that any provision or requirement of this Code has not been complied with, a party proceeds with dispute resolution proceedings without promptly stating its objection, that party shall have waived its right to object.
- 12.2 Save in respect of decisions made prior to the constitution of a Tribunal and the election of its Chairperson, any decision of the Secretary of the Disputes Resolution Authority may be appealed to the Tribunal.

The Gaelic Athletic Association

ANTI-DOPING CODE

Cumann Lúthchleas Gael

Preamble

The GAA is dedicated to the ideals that in its Games the spirit of fair play prevails, the health of players is paramount, and that doping can have no place in Gaelic Games. The GAA is committed to cooperate with the Irish Sports Council (ISC) to advance these ideals.

The GAA also recognises that in enforcing this Anti-Doping Code the constitutional and legal rights of the individual must always be respected.

The GAA realises that any finding of a breach of the Code has the potential to damage the good name of the person involved. Therefore, where a doping infraction is alleged, the case must be proved beyond reasonable doubt. All practicable steps must be taken to avoid the identification of any person under investigation for any alleged infraction of the Code.

Chapter I

Article 1 Definitions

‘Participant’ means any player, coach, trainer, official, advisor, medical or paramedical personnel working with or treating players participating in or preparing for any Senior Intercounty Championship and National League games.

‘Prohibited Substance’ and ‘Prohibited Method’ have the meanings set forth in Appendix A to this Code.

‘I.O.C Classification’ means as set forth by the Olympic Movement Anti-Doping Code of the International Olympic Committee, as published from time to time.

‘Positive Test Result’ means the result of a test on a sample provided by a player pursuant to this Code, which reveals the presence of a substance or use of a method prohibited under this Code.

‘GAA Administrative Officer’ means the person appointed as such by the GAA to oversee the implementation of the Anti-Doping programme, and shall include anyone duly authorised by him to act in his place at any particular venue.

‘DCO’ means the person appointed by ISC to act as Doping Control Officer.

Reference to:

- (a) the singular includes the plural, and the plural includes the singular; and,
- (b) one gender includes the other gender.

Article 2

This Code applies to all participants competing in or concerned with Senior Football and Hurling Intercounty Championship and National League Games.

Article 3

Notwithstanding the obligations of other participants to comply with the provisions of this Code, it is the personal responsibility of every player, subject to the provisions of this Code, to ensure that he does not use any prohibited substance or any prohibited method.

It shall be a defence for any player to show that a duly qualified medical practitioner had prescribed the substance in question to alleviate a particular ailment and not so as to enhance playing performance.

Chapter II

Article I

1. Doping is prohibited.
2. Recommending or proposing or authorising or condoning or facilitating the use of any prohibited substance or prohibited method is also prohibited.

Article 2

Doping is:

the use of an expedient (substance or method) which is potentially harmful to a player's health and/or capable of enhancing his performance, or the presence in the player's body of a prohibited substance, or evidence of the use thereof, or evidence of the use of a prohibited method as described in the Olympic Movement Anti-Doping Code (refer Appendix A).

Chapter III

Article 1

The GAA, in cooperation with the ISC, will facilitate the carrying out of tests at any of its venues agreed with the ISC.

Article 2

The GAA Disciplinary Committee and Appeal Committee (set up under this Code) shall accept the result of any test carried out by a laboratory currently accredited and authorised by the ISC for testing. The onus of proof, on the balance of probabilities, is on the person who claims the GAA Disciplinary Committee or Appeal Committee, as the case may be, should not accept the result. Any certificate, notice or form of the laboratory carrying out the testing shall, until the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the contents thereof.

A certificate purporting to be signed by the Chief Executive Officer of the ISC that a particular laboratory is an accredited laboratory shall be accepted, until the contrary is shown, that it is so accredited.

TESTING FOR DOPING

Article 1

Sampling and testing of players must be conducted substantially in conformity with the procedures described in Appendix B. Minor irregularities, which cannot reasonably be considered to have affected the results of otherwise valid tests, will not invalidate such results.

Article 2

Testing will consist of sample collection, separation of the sample into two parts and analysis thereof. If the test on the first part of the sample (the 'A' sample) does not indicate the presence of a prohibited substance or the use of a prohibited method, the second part of the sample (the 'B' sample) will be disposed of and no further action will be taken.

If analysis to the 'A' sample indicates the presence of a prohibited substance or the use of a prohibited method, the GAA will then inform the person who was tested of the test result and that it believes that an infraction may have been committed. The player will be asked for an explanation.

Article 3

The player may request that the 'B' sample be tested. If no request for a test on the 'B' sample is received by the GAA within 14 days of notification of the person, the person shall be deemed to have accepted the result of the 'A' sample analysis.

If an analysis of the 'B' sample is requested, the person who was tested and the representative of his choice are entitled to be present when the 'B' sample analysis is carried out. A representative of the GAA may also be present. The 'B' sample analysis result will be notified to the GAA, who will then inform the person who was tested.

INELIGIBILITY PENDING DETERMINATION OF DISCIPLINARY PROCESS

A player shall be ineligible to play in any GAA competition from the date of the notification to him of a positive test result of the 'A' sample until there is a finding in his favour:

- (i) as a result of the analysis of the 'B' sample;
- (ii) by the Disciplinary Committee, or;
- (iii) by the Appeal Committee.

Chapter IV

Article 1

Disciplinary Committee

A panel of individuals shall be maintained who, from time to time, may be invited to form a Disciplinary Committee, which will hear cases where the ISC has provided evidence that a doping infraction has taken place. The Committee, three in number, shall comprise persons who are expert in medical, legal, and pharmacological matters relevant to Anti-Doping issues.

Article 2

Disciplinary Process

The Disciplinary Committee hearing shall normally be convened within fourteen days of notification to the player of a positive test result, unless the player indicates that he wants the 'B' sample tested. If the test result of the 'B' sample confirms the original positive test result, the Disciplinary hearing will be conducted as soon as possible thereafter. In order to allow time for the Player to prepare his case, the hearing may be adjourned to seek further information at the discretion of the Disciplinary Committee.

The Disciplinary Committee will have the power to receive written submissions as well as any other relevant information from the Player, (and/or Player's representatives), and the GAA Administrative Officer.

Following the hearing, the Disciplinary Committee will notify the Committee's decision in writing to the Player and the GAA Administrative Officer. The Disciplinary Committee shall provide written reasons for reaching its decision.

SANCTIONS

Article 1

Any person found to have committed a breach of the Code will be:

- (1) suspended from all functions, privileges and competitions under the GAA's control;
- (2) suspended from holding office with any Unit of the GAA for the period determined by the Disciplinary Committee.

Article 2

The penalty for a breach of the Code is:

- (1) where the breach of the Code involves:
  - (a) prohibited anabolic agents;
  - (b) peptide and glycoprotein hormones and analogues;
  - (c) a prohibited method; or
  - (d) a refusal to provide a sample;

then:

- (i) a maximum of 48 weeks suspension for the first such breach of the Code; and
- (ii) a maximum of 96 weeks suspension for a second such breach of the Code.

In the case of any other breach of the Code the penalty is:

- (i) a caution; or,
- (ii) a maximum of 48 weeks suspension for the first such breach; and,
- (iii) a maximum of 96 weeks suspension for a second such breach.

Article 3

In any hearing concerning:

- (1) a Positive Test Result for a substance prohibited under this Code; or,

- (2) the use of a method prohibited under this Code through the administration of substances, the Disciplinary Committee shall have regard for reasonable therapeutic activities undertaken at the prescription and direction of a duly qualified medical practitioner.

Article 4

Appeal Committee

An independent Appeal Committee, comprising three in number, will hear any appeal against the Disciplinary Committee's decision. The membership will be drawn from the panel of individuals who are expert in the medical, legal, and pharmacological issues involved and were not concerned with the Disciplinary Committee proceedings.

A party wishing to dispute the findings of the Disciplinary Committee shall by written notice state the grounds of appeal to the Appeal Committee.

The appeal shall be by way of re-hearing of all relevant evidence and material.

Following the hearing, the Appeal Committee will notify the Committee's decision in writing to the Player and the GAA Administrative Officer. The Appeal Committee shall provide written reasons for reaching its decision.

The Appeal Committee may reverse any finding and reduce the penalty imposed by the Disciplinary Committee, but may not increase it.

Hearings of the Disciplinary Committee and Appeal Committee shall be conducted in accordance with natural and constitutional justice.

Chapter V

Article 1

1. These rules shall come into force on and may be amended by resolution of the Annual GAA Congress or Special Congress.
2. These rules are governed by the laws of Ireland.

OLYMPIC MOVEMENT ANTI-DOPING CODE

PROHIBITED CLASSES OF SUBSTANCES AND PROHIBITED METHODS

1st April 2000

I. PROHIBITED CLASSES OF SUBSTANCES

A. Stimulants

Prohibited substances in class (A) include the following examples:

amineptine, amiphenazole, amphetamines, bromantan, caffeine*, carphedon, cocaine, ephedrines**, fencamfamin, formetero***, mesocarb, pentetrazol, pipradrol, salbutamol***, salmeterol***, terbutaline***, . . . and related substances.

* For caffeine the definition of a positive is a concentration in urine greater than 12 micrograms per millilitre.

** For cathine, the definition of a positive is a concentration in urine greater than 5 micrograms per millilitre. For ephedrine and methylephedrine, the definition of a positive is a concentration in urine greater than 10 micrograms per millilitre. For phenylpropanolamine and pseudoephedrine, the definition of a positive is a concentration in urine greater than 25 micrograms per millilitre.

*** Permitted by inhaler only to prevent and/or treat asthma and exercise-induced asthma.

Written notification of asthma and/or exercise-induced asthma by a respiratory or team physician is necessary to the relevant medical authority prior to competition. At the Olympic Games, athletes who request permission to inhale a permitted beta agonist will be assessed by an independent medical panel.

NOTE: All imidazole preparations are acceptable for topical use. Vasoconstrictors may be administered with local anaesthetic agents. Topical preparations (e.g. nasal, ophthalmological, rectal) of adrenaline and phenylephrine are permitted.

B. Narcotics

Prohibited substances in class (B) include the following examples:

buprenorphine, dextromoramide, diamorphine (heroin), methadone, morphine, pentazocine, pethidine, ... and related substances.

NOTE: codeine, dextromethorphan, dextropropoxyphene, dihydrocodeine, diphenoxylate, ethylmorphine, pholcodine, propoxyphene and tramadol are permitted.

C. Anabolic agents

Prohibited substances in class (C) include the following examples:

1. Anabolic androgenic steroids

a.

clostebol, fluoxymesterone, metandienone, metenolone, nandrolone, 19-norandrostenediol, 19-norandrostenedione, oxandrolone, stanozolol, ... and related substances.

androstenediol, androstenedione, dehydroepiandrosterone (DHEA), dihydrotestosterone, testosterone*, ... and related substances.

Evidence obtained from metabolic profiles and/or isotopic ratio measurements may be used to draw definitive conclusions.

* The presence of a testosterone (T) to epitestosterone (E) ratio greater than six (6) to one (1) in the urine of a competitor constitutes an offence unless there is evidence that this ratio is due to a physiological or pathological condition, e.g. low epitestosterone excretion, androgen producing tumour, enzyme deficiencies.

In the case of T/E greater than 6, it is mandatory that the relevant medical authority conducts an investigation before the sample is declared positive. A full report will be written and will include a review of previous tests, subsequent tests and any results of endocrine investigations. In the event that previous tests are not available, the athlete should be tested unannounced at least once per month for three months. The results of these investigations should be included in the report. Failure to co-operate in the investigations will result in declaring the sample positive.

2. Beta-2 agonists

bambuterol, clenbuterol, fenoterol, formoterol*, reproterol, salbutamol*, salmeterol*, terbutaline*, ... and related substances.

*Authorized by inhalation as described in Article (I.A.).

For salbutamol the definition of a positive under the anabolic agent category is a concentration in urine greater than 1000 nanograms per millilitre.

D. Diuretics

Prohibited substances in class (D) include the following examples:

acetazolamide, bumetanide, chlortalidone, etacrynic acid, furosemide, hydrochlorothiazide, mannitol*, mersaly, spironolactone, triamterene, ... and related substances.

5. Insulin-like Growth Factor (IGF-1);

and all the respective releasing factors and their analogues;

6. Erythropoietin (EPO);
7. Insulin;

permitted only to treat athletes with certified insulin-dependent diabetes. Written certification of insulin-dependent diabetes must be obtained from an endocrinologist or team physician.

The presence of an abnormal concentration of an endogenous hormone in class (E) or its diagnostic marker(s) in the urine of a competitor constitutes an offence unless it has been proven to be due to a physiological or pathological condition.

II. PROHIBITED METHODS

The following procedures are prohibited:

SAMPLE COLLECTION PROCEDURE

1. Notification of Selection for Testing

At any particular venue specified by the ISC, players will be notified in writing that they have been selected for testing by means of an official Sample Collection Form.

2. Reporting for Testing

The player must report to the Doping Control Station as quickly as possible. However, where a player is required

- (i) to receive medical attention;
- (ii) to attend a presentation ceremony;
- (iii) to fulfil media engagements; or,
- (iv) to perform a warm down;

he shall be allowed a reasonable time for any such eventuality, provided that he presents himself at the Doping Control Station not later than ninety minutes from the conclusion of the game. A player who fails to arrive at the Sampling Room within the specified period, or refuses to provide a sample shall be deemed to be in breach of the Anti-Doping Code.

A representative may accompany the player at the testing session.

Sealed drinks will be available at the Doping Control Station.

3. Selecting a Collection Vessel

When the player is ready to provide a sample, the player will be asked to select a sealed sample collection vessel and go to the toilet area with the Doping Control Officer (DCO).

4. Providing a Sample

The player must ensure that the collection vessel remains in the sight of the DCO while the sample is being provided. In order for the DCO to have an unobstructed view, the player will be required to be undressed from mid-waist to midthigh. When the required amount of urine has been provided (min. 75ml) the player must return to the Doping Control Station administration room with the DCO. Only the player should handle the sample.

5. Selecting a Sampling Kit

The player will be asked to select a sampling kit, and ensure that the seal is intact.

6. Dividing the Sample

Using the sampling kit, the player will divide his sample between the 'A' & 'B' sample bottles, putting a minimum of 30ml into the 'B' bottle and the remainder in the 'A' bottle. A few drops of urine should be left in the collection vessel, to allow the DCO to assess the suitability of the sample for testing.

7. Sealing the Sample

The player will be invited to seal the two bottles, and ensure there is no leakage.

8. Testing the Suitability of the Sample

The PH and the Specific Gravity of the sample will be tested by the DCO. The reading is recorded on the Sample Collection Form. If the readings are below those recommended the player will be asked to provide another sample.

9. Recording the Information

The DCO records the 'A' & 'B' sample numbers on the Sample Collection Form. The player should check that this is correct and declare any medication they have taken during the past seven days. The player may also record any comments that he may have on the testing session.

10. Certifying the Information

The DCO will then ask the player and the player's representative (if any) to check the information on the form and sign it, if the player is satisfied that it is accurate. The DCO will also check and sign the form. The player will be given a copy of the form, and the player will then be free to leave the Doping Control Station.

11. Selection of Players for Testing

- 11.1 The random draw for the selection of players to be tested shall be made no later than the start of the second half of the game.

- 11.2 The DCO shall provide a set of balls numbered one to the number corresponding to the total number of players and stand-by players participating. The balls shall be contained as to ensure that the numbers thereon are not visible to the person making the draw.

- 11.3 The first two numbered balls drawn shall determine the players from each team to be tested. The third numbered ball drawn will determine the stand-by player to be tested in the event of one of the selected players being injured.

- 11.4 An official of the GAA shall supervise the draw for the selection of players for testing. Whenever possible, an independent third party, for example, a match official, shall make the random selection, and one representative from any team involved may attend.

DR. CROKE'S LETTER

At the founding of the Association the following letter was received from the Most Rev. T. W. Croke, Archbishop of Cashel and Emlly: -
The Palace, Thurles,
December 18th, 1884

My Dear Sir - I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your communication inviting me to become a patron of the Celtic Athletic Association, of which you are it appears, the Hon. Secretary. I accede to your request with the utmost pleasure.

One of the most painful, let me assure you, and at the same time, one of the most frequently recurring, reflections that, as an Irishman, I am compelled to make in connection with the present aspect of things in this country, is derived from the ugly and irritating fact, that we are daily importing from England, not only her manufactured goods, which we cannot help doing, since she has practically strangled our own manufacturing appliances, but, together with her fashions, her accents, her vicious literature, her music, her dances and her manifold mannerisms, her games also, and her pastimes, to the utter discredit of our own grand national sports, and to the sore humiliation, as I believe, of every genuine son and daughter of the old land.

Ball-playing, hurling, football-kicking according to Irish rules, 'casting,' leaping in various ways, wrestling, handy-grips, top-pegging, leap-frog, rounders, tip-in-the hat, and all such favourite exercises and amusements amongst men and boys may now be said to be not only dead and buried, but in several localities to be entirely forgotten and unknown. And what have we got in their stead? We have got such foreign and fantastic field sports as lawn tennis, polo, croquet, cricket, and the like - very excellent, I believe, and health-giving exercises in their way, still not racy of the soil, but rather alien, on the contrary, to it, as are indeed, for the most part, the men and women who first imported, and still continue to patronise them.

And, unfortunately, it is not our national sports alone that are held in dishonour and are dying out, but even our most suggestive national celebrations are being gradually effaced and extinguished, one after another as well. Who hears now of snap-apple night, pan-cake night, or bon-fire night? They are all things of the past, too vulgar to be spoken of except in ridicule by the degenerate dandies of the day. No doubt, there is something rather pleasing to the eye in the get-up of a modern man, who arrayed in light attire, with parti-coloured cap on and a racquet in hand, making his way, with or without a companion, to the tennis ground. But for my part, I should vastly prefer to behold, or think of, the youthful athletes whom I used to see in my early days at fair and pattern, bereft of shoes and coat, and thus prepared to play at handball, to fly over any number of horses, to throw the 'sledge', or 'winding-stone', and to test each other's metal and activity by the trying ordeal of 'three leaps', or a 'hop, step and jump'.

Indeed if we continue travelling for the next score years in the same direction that we have been going in for some time past, condemning the sports that were practised by our forefathers, effacing our national features as though we were ashamed of them, and putting on, with England's stuffs and broadcloths, her masher habits and such other effeminate follies as she may recommend, we had better at once, and publicly, abjure our nationality, clap hands for joy at sight of the Union Jack, and place 'England's bloody red' exultantly above the green.

Deprecating as I do any such dire and disgraceful consummation, and seeing in your society of athletes something altogether opposing to it, I shall be happy to do all for it that I can, and authorise you now formally to place my name on the roll of your patrons.

In conclusion, I earnestly hope that our national journals will not disdain in future to give suitable notices of these Irish sports and pastimes which your Society means to patronise and promote, and that the masters and pupils of our Irish Colleges will not henceforth exclude from their athletic programmes such manly exercises as I have just referred to and commemorated.

I remain, my dear Sir,
Your very faithful servant,
T. W. CROKE,
Archbishop of Cashel.

To: Mr. Michael Cusack.
Hon. Sec. of the Gaelic Athletic Association.

MICHAEL CUSACK: MAURICE DAVIN: ARCHBISHOP CROKE

It is no injustice to the services rendered by many zealous and constructive persons connected with the establishment of the Gaelic Athletic Association to accord to Michael Cusack, Maurice Davin and Archbishop Croke the greater share of credit for the creation and character of this National Organisation. Each in his own person embodied and imparted to the movement a distinct principle, and the triple union of aims and impulses thus attained constituted a potent National Ideal.

MICHAEL CUSACK conceived in the Association a powerful bulwark against the inroads of alien influences and ideas of existence. He was the uncompromising champion of all distinctive Gaelic traditions, institutions and cultural possessions and fashioned the G.A.A. as a future army of resurgent Gaeldom. He was born in Carron, Burren, Co. Clare, on the 20th September, 1847, and died 27th November, 1906.

MAURICE DAVIN had the same pride in native customs that fostered manliness. His concern was to preserve the dignity and vindicate the prestige of native athleticism and rescue it from humiliating alien influences. As one of an outstanding family of athletes, he resented these, and no one was better fitted to lead the revolt against them. For this, and because of his personal prowess in the arena, Maurice Davin may justly be acknowledged as the "Father of Modern Irish Athletics". He was born in Carrick-on-Suir, Co. Tipperary, 29th June, 1842, and died on 26th January, 1927.

DR. CROKE brought a third and immeasurably powerful element of strength into the Association when he became its first Patron. As Archbishop of Cashel, his approval was of the utmost importance. It was opportunely forthcoming, and until the day of his death his interest in the well-being and success of the G.A.A. never diminished. When it was threatened with disruption he brought the dissident parties together: when it was assailed he defended it: when it was in need of practical help, he gave it. A lover of all manly outdoor sports belonging to the people, Dr. Croke realised the immense moral benefits to be gained by organisation and discipline, and as an advocate of national independence, he saw in those self-disciplined ranks an invaluable force for the attainment of that long-sought goal. He was born in Mallow, Co. Cork, on 19th May, 1824, and died on 22nd July, 1902.

So long as the Gaelic Athletic Association exists and so long as our distinctive pastimes flourish in our midst, the memory and services of these three men, Pioneer, President and Patron, to the cause of a Free and Gaelic Ireland must be held in grateful respect.
